MERCURY DROPS TO FREEZING MARK

Heavy Frost Visible When Temperature Goes Down to 31 Degrees During The Night

ANOTHER FROST DUE TONIGHT

Young Plants of Late Varieties Nipped But No Fruit Was Damaged, It is Believed

The mercury hit the downward grade during the night, and registered a new low mark for the fall, by dropping one degree below freezing, and reaching 31 degrees, bringing a light freeze and a heavy frost, according to Elwood Kirkwood of Mauzy, who is in charge of the government thermometer.

The drop last night was keenly felt, because during the day, the mercury had almost reached the 60 mark. The weather indications for tonight also predict a frost, with slowly rising temperature on Saturday.

The drop to 31 degrees during the night brought a light freeze in some localities in the county, and several people reported seeing a thin layer of ice on shallow water and in damp places.

The frost was plainly visible long after the sun came up, and many young plants of late varieties were nipped, but it is not believed that the frost or freeze did any serious damage to the late fruit crop.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 14. — Frost, varying from light coatings to one of a heavy, killing weight, was reported today throughout the northern and central parts of the state.

Although reports on crop damages were not yet available, officials believed that serious damage was done. The corn, still green, was in a very susceptible condition, J. H. Arming-ton, weather bureau director, said.

It was feared that the tomato crop was also damaged.

Marion and Lafayette reported killing frosts. The frost did heavy damage in the vicinity of Fort Wayne, according to reports.

The blanket of frost extended as far south as Washington, where a light frost was reported.

The lowest temperatures recorded were at Columbus and Cambridge City, where the temperature dropped to 31 degrees. Other cities reported temperatures slightly above freezing.

Hichest In Years

Terre Haute, Ind., Sept. 14. — Heavy frost was recorded throughout the Wabash valley today the weather bureau announced. The temperature dropped to 38 and the

FINAL PLANS ARE MADE FOR PILGRIMAGE HERE

Finishing Touches Put on Thursday Night For Pilgrims of Nabor Coming Saturday Night

STAGE EFFECTS TO BE USED

Final touches were put on the arrangements for the grand and illustrious pilgrimage of the Pilgrims of Nabor Saturday evening at a meeting held in the Odd Fellows temple, Thursday night, when two novices were conducted through the work. Reports were received from Indianapolis and Greensburg indicating a large attendance due to the interest aroused by the souvenir program as well as the prominence of the candidates.

The electrical effects under the direction of Knowlton Newhouse and Jacob Weber were tested out and found to be very effective and are expected to make quite an impression on the novices. Other startling stage effects are employed which add to the interest.

The regular roll call of the Nimrods will be held and the decoration of Knight of L'Emon will be conferred.

Hotel reservations are being made by the visitors who will remain over until Sunday and proceed to Cincinnati to attend the meeting of the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the world that convenes there Monday.

AID OF SECY. HUGHES ASKED

Gov. McCray Seeks Help in Locating Rush County Man in Tokio

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 14 — Governor McCray today sought the assistance of Secretary of State Hughes in determining the fate of Rupert Stanley, former resident of Rush county, who was supposed to have been in Tokio at the time of the earthquake.

No word has been received thus far, as to the fate of Stanley, his wife and three small sons. The last word from him before the earthquake was that he was living in Tokio, where he was a Y. M. C. A. secretary.

Stanley was a native of Carthage, Rush county, and a graduate of Earlham college.

FRIENDLY SUIT HEARD BY JURY

Court Occupied With Case of Stella Beck Against Father's Estate For $7,500

TO BE CONCLUDED TODAY

Complaint For Possession and Damages, Based on Contract Violation, is Filed

The jury was hearing a case today in the circuit court in which Stella Beck is plaintiff against the estate of her father, William Dagler who died last March, her case being based upon a claim for services rendered the deceased during his last illness.

The case was termed as a friendly action, in which it is understood that there would be no defense. The first dozen men placed in the jury box were selected for the case. The plaintiff was expected to rest her case by two o'clock this afternoon, and she used about 25 witnesses. She is demanding $7,500 judgment.

The jury consisted of Horace Glidden, Nathan Brown, Elmer Branam, Frank Megee, Elmer Emsweller, Harry Leisare, William Summan, Otis Freeman, N. P. Jones, Oliver Megee, Charles French and Omer Gar-tin.

A complaint for possession of real estate and for damages has been filed in the circuit court by Marion Boes and Catherine Boes of Shelby county against Robert H. Parker of Decatur county, in which the plaintiffs allege that the defendant rented a 97 acre farm from them located in the western part of Rush county, and has failed to abide by his contract.

The complaint includes the contract that is alleged to exist between the two parties, and the plaintiffs maintain that certain parts of the contract have not been fulfilled, and that the farm has been damaged on account of neglect to the crops.

On account of the alleged damage the plaintiffs maintain that the contract provides for the sudden termination of the contract and that the defendants refuse to move and quit the farm. The plaintiffs ask the court to give them possession of their farm, and also $500 judgment for the alleged damages, due to the neglect as set out in the complaint. The case of Henry W. Beckner against the estate of George Beckner, another complaint on a claim on notes against an estate, has been decided by the court, and the plaintiff awarded $626.56 and costs.

In the case of Charles W. Hinkle against William Emsweller and Rose Emsweller, the defendants defaulted, and the plaintiff has been awarded $130.40 and costs on an account.

JAPANESE RELIEF

Two more contributions, amounting to $15.00 were added today to the Japanese relief fund being raised by the Rush county Red Cross chapter, bringing the total to $824.72. The number of contributions has been growing smaller each day and officials of the Red Cross are of the opinion that the campaign will be closed within a few days. They regard the showing made so far as exceptionally good.

RUMMAGE SALE IS TO BE HELD OCT. 6

Same Means Will Be Used This Fall To Raise Funds For Work Among Afflicted Children

"BUNDLE DAY" ON PROGRAM

Rush County Welfare Association Work With Board of Children's Guardians Reviewed

A rummage sale similar to the one conducted last fall by the Rush County Child Welfare association, will be held here on Saturday, October 6, it was announced today, and the proceeds will be used by the association among the afflicted children of the poor throughout the county.

A "Bundle Day" like the one last year will be held at which time automobiles will go about the city and collect used clothing to be sold at the rummage sale. Members of the association in each township will assist in the work and collect material in their respective communities. The place of the sale can not be definitely announced yet.

The value of the child welfare association, which was organized some time ago to co-operate with the county board of children's guardians, was shown at the recent annual meeting of the association when new officers were elected and the annual report was read, showing that twenty seven children had been placed in permanent homes during the year and that fifty had been cured of various ailments, including hospital surgery, dental, eye ear, nose and throat cases.

This work, of course, was done in

Pot of Meat Burns And Brings Out Fire Department

The fire department was called at 3:10 Thursday afternoon to box 46, Seventh and the Big Four railroad, where smoke was issuing from the residence of Jesse Drake, 638 West Seventh street. Upon investigating, the firemen found a pot of boiling meat on the kitchen stove, had boiled dry, and had completely filled the house with smoke, and the smoke was coming from the windows and doorways, giving the appearance of a bad fire. People living in the vicinity of the house took first precautions and turned in the alarm. No one was home at the time. Firemen report that the loss was confined to the pot of meat.

Farmers Meeting Depicting Organization of Movement and Awarding of Medal "Shot" in Court House Assembly Room—County Fair Scene Taken at Lafayette Today.

The closing scenes of "Bob Farnum's Ton Litter," the government picture that features Rush county, were taken Thursday afternoon in the court house assembly room, and about one hundred persons volunteered to act as an audience for a farmer's meeting, and took part in several scenes. Additional scenes to complete the six reel picture were to be taken today at Lafayette where a fair is being held, as the picture calls for a showing of a county fair ground and other fair scenes.

More than five reels were "shot" in this county, with several of the leading hog raising farms in the scenes.

REVOLUTION LEADER TO FORM GOVERNMENT

Captain General Primo DeRiveira Charged With Responsibility by King of Spain

VICTORY FOR REVOLUTION

Madrid, Sept. 14.—The king today charged the Barcelona revolutionary leader, Captain General Primo DeRiveira, with formation of a new government.

Selection of the revolutionary leader to form a new cabinet would indicate the revolution has ended in complete triumph for the military Juntas, who presumably will start immediately carrying out their program which calls for:

1—A vigorous campaign against the Moorish rebels in Morocco.
2—Suppression of communism and separatism.
3—Satisfaction of the legitimate demands of Catalonia, Galicia and Biscaya, but with preservation of the national unity.
The revolutionists, it was indicated will not tolerate separation of Catalonia from the Spanish state and will stand firm in their loyalty to the king and the monarchy.

ACCEPTS POSITION

Walter Stevens has accepted a position with the Up-To-Date Clothing Store, managed by Paul M. Phillips.

"Bob Farnum," the farmer, was played by Wilbur Gray, and the picture depicts the hardships that he had to contend with, before reaching the Ton Litter class with his hogs.

Scenes made in the assembly room yesterday afternoon, represented a farmers meeting, and showed County Agent Ball introducing Mr. Wiley of Purdue, who lectured on the work of the Ton Litter, and then showed where farmers signed up for the work, including Mr. Gray.

Among the scenes also showed another meeting different from the first in which Mr. Gray or "Bob Farnum" was awarded the medal which was presented by Mayor Thomas, who acted as the chairman of the farmers meeting.

The camera man moved outside of the court house and showed the crowd of "farmers" leaving the meeting, and discussing the session with each other. The time was supposed to be in the afternoon.

MILITARY CENSORSHIP PLACED ON NEWSPAPER

Gov. J. C. Walton Of Oklahoma In First Step To Tighten Grip Of The Mailed Fist

TULSA TRIBUNE TO FIGHT IT

(By United Press)
Tulsa, Oklahoma, Sept. 14. — Military censorship of the Tulsa Tribune was ordered today by Governor J. C. Walton, the first step by the executive to tighten the grip of the mailed fist upon the city.

Carrying out the threat in his ultimatum to the city, demanding that certain officials, who he believed responsible for the flogging parties and mob rule in Tulsa, resign, the governor prepared to enforce the strictest martial law restrictions ever known in any city of America.

The Tribune, edited by Richard Lloyd Jones, noted newspaper publisher, has fought Walton's efforts to clamp a tight military rule upon the city. When troops were sent into Tulsa a month ago to take over the civil government of what the governor characterized as a "reign of terror," the Tribune started a campaign against the governor's official acts.

Owners of the Tribune today announced plans were being made to seek an injunction in federal court to prevent Governor Walton from

DOLLINGS OFFICERS IN JAIL AT EATON, O.

Dwight Harrison Of Columbus, O., Under Arrest And Pres. Benham Is Sought On Indictment

INDICTED ON 14 COUNTS

Eaton, Ohio, Sept. 14. —Dwight Harrison of Columbus, Ohio, vice president and general manager of the $80,000,000 R. L. Dollings, fiscal brokerage house, now in the hands of receivers, is in jail here on indictments charging him with obtaining money under false pretenses, it was learned today. Harrison was indicted secretly by a Preble county grand jury in connection with the state wide investigation of the big brokerage house and was arrested last night by Sheriff Nehrlay.

Columbus, O., Sept. 14. —A warrant for the arrest of William G. Benham, president of the R. L. Dollings Company, has been issued on indictments returned by the Preble county grand jury, Attorney General Crabbe of Ohio announced today.

Benham with Dwight Harrison, vice president of the company, was named in 14 counts charging he obtained money under false pretense, Crabbe said.

The grand jury investigation of the affairs of the fiscal brokerage house and its officers was conducted by the Preble county grand jury under direction of Attorney General Crabbe and Preble county prosecutor, Ralph G. Sever.

WEATHER FAVORS CHAMPION

Chief Topic Preceding "Second Battle Of The Century" Is How Many Rounds Firpo Will Last

(By United Press)
New York, Sept. 14. — Thick gray clouds hung low in the skies and a cold wintry breeze swept over the city this morning as the crowds were gathering for the heavyweight championship contest at the Polo Grounds tonight between Jack Dempsey and Luis Angel Firpo. The weather report predicted fair and cool weather with no threat of rain. Overcoats will be in order.

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

New York, Sept. 14. — The trail from an obscure drug store in far away Argentina to a chalked, rope-bound battlefield, where eighty thousand screaming fans look on, will end tonight for Luis Angel Firpo in a blind alley or in an open door to fame and great wealth, when the South American meets Jack Dempsey at the Polo Grounds in a fight for the world's heavyweight championship.

Only Firpo and a few of his loyal countrymen who set out in a strange way on their strange mission believed this morning that they had not reached the end of their trail.

The preponderance of opinion, sport and casual, painted for Firpo

Dempsey Weighs in 24 Pounds Lighter Than Firpo

New York, Sept. 14.—The first official act of ceremonies preliminary to the Dempsey-Firpo heavyweight championship fight, was staged this afternoon when the champion and challenger were weighed by the boxing commission.

Dempsey tipped the scales at 192 and one half pounds and Firpo weighed 216 and one-half pounds.

The two principals appeared at the office of the boxing commission, a little after one o'clock. William Muldoon, chairman of the commission, tested the scales and then adjusted the weights when the fighters stepped on the scales.

NATION-WIDE SEARCH BEGUN

Indianapolis Police Have Slim Clue To Follow In Clearing Mystery Of The Theft

A STENOGRAPHER SAW HIM

Accomplice of Robber Who Took $40,000 in Securities Called Bank Officer to Phone

(By United Press)
Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 14.—After reconstructing the movements of one of the two men who worked together in the theft of $40,000 worth of negotiable government securities from the Indiana National Bank here yesterday, police and detectives today directed a nation-wide search for the men.

One of the men, and possibly both of them, police believe, came to Indianapolis yesterday morning from Chicago.

A man answering the description of the thief as given by Miss Gertrude Dausman, stenographer in the bank, approached a patrolman at the Union station Thursday morning and asked to be directed to the Indiana National Bank.

The same man, according to employees at the station, asked about the arrival of mail train No. 143 from Chicago, on which the securities were brought to Indianapolis. The man was ordered from the station platform.

It is believed the robbers knew the securities were to be sent from a bond house in Chicago, and that they followed them from Chicago, and watched at the bank until the securities were left unguarded.

Then, police believe, the accomplice put in a telephone call to keep Edward Moore, vice president of the bank, away from his desk while the thief walked leisurely up to Moore's desk and picked up the securities.

Then the two made their escape, unobserved by bank employees or customers.

Numbers of the stolen securities have been sent to every bank and bond house in the country.

The stenographer, Miss Gertrude Dausman, caught a glance of a man sitting at the desk of Edward Moore vice president of the bank, while Moore was absent to answer the telephone.

When Moore returned the man and the securities were missing. The securities had come by registered mail from Chicago just ten minutes before the robbery was executed.

Miss Dausman described the man as middle aged, clean shaven and wearing a gray suit. She was unable to give detailed description of the man.

Moore declared today it would have been impossible for the robbers to have been seen by him.

ITALY DECIDES TO EVACUATE CORFU

Official Text of Note From Ambassadors to Greece Makes This Fact Known

ITALY MAY CLAIM EXPENSES

By WEBB MILLER
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Paris, Sept. 14.—Italy has decided to evacuate Corfu September 27, according to the official text of the note of the council of ambassadors to Greece, which was made public today.

However, the note says, the ambassadors reserve the right, in case they decide the conditions of search for the persons guilty of massacre of the Italian boundary commission have not been executed fully, to impose other measures of coercion and penalties such as hanging over fifty million lire and renouncing Greece's right of recourse to The Hague tribunal.

Italy, however, will retain her right to submit to the tribunal her claim for expenses of the occupation of Corfu.

The commission of inquiry of the council of ambassadors will commence its sittings September 17 at Janina and will report provisionally by telegraph every five days, whereupon the council will decide whether Greece is acting in good faith.

NEARLY MILLION IN HOSPITAL FUND

John N. Bromert Reports On Riley Campaign Before District Kiwanis Convention

$110,000 BY STATE KIWANIANS

Rushville Club Contributes $1,510. Report Of State Executive Committee Shows

South Bend, Ind., Sept. 14. — Twenty-two thousand individuals organizations and industries have contributed a total of $990,000 toward the building fund of the James Whitcomb Riley hospital for crippled children, it was revealed in the report of the state executive committee to the district Kiwanis convention here today. The report was read by John N. Bromert, former district governor of Kiwanis, and a member of the Riley Memorial Association.

The total contributions, together with state appropriations amounting to $400,000 will make available a building fund of $1,390,000 the report stated.

Of the contributions, Indiana Kiwanians have contributed a total of more than $110,000, of which $83,071.50 is actually recorded on the books of the association. When reports of various cities that haven't yet reported the amounts raised in their clubs, are received, this amount will be swelled considerably, according to the report.

Members of the Rushville Kiwanis club have contributed a total of $1,510, according to the report of the state executive committee to the district gathering here.

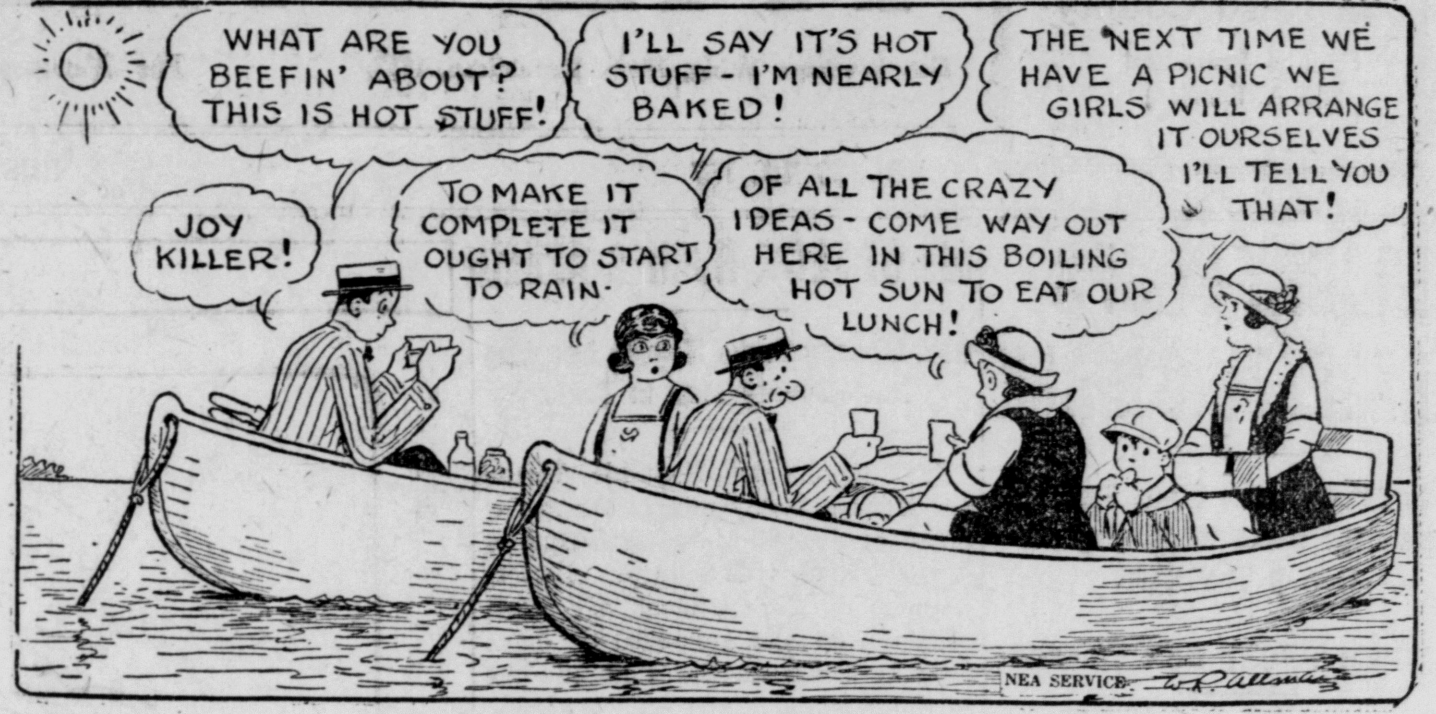

The committee's report on progress of construction stated that the first building, work on which was begun last June, now is under roof. This building will accommodate 120 patients in addition to providing two big free dispensaries for state service, operating rooms, nurses and internes' quarters and various clinical rooms. Every dollar of obligation on the building has been met as it fell due. The total cost of this unit is in excess of $500,000.

The contract for construction of the power house and heating plant has been let and construction work is progressing to such an extent that it will be completed, at a cost of more than $300,000, about Jan. 1. The service wing of the institution has been planned and contract for its construction will be let at the earliest possible moment. It is expected cost of this unit will exceed $300,000. It will include the kitchen, dining rooms for staff, nurses, internes and employees, and isolation ward of 24 beds, storage rooms and laundry. With this unit up, it can be said that one-half the institution will have been completed.

In speaking of the work of the Kiwanians of Indiana in aiding the Riley hospital project the state executive committee, in its report, said: "Indiana Kiwanis was a pioneer in Riley hospital work. It entered the field when the Riley hospital was little appreciated. Its influence was cast into the struggle for better childhood at the opportune time. Its endorsement, spread throughout the state by many men whose words carried weight, gave recognition and impetus to the work. Thousands followed the lead set by Kiwanis. The results in practical aid and moral support are incalculable. Kiwanis leadership helped wonderfully in that which has been accomplished and the state executive committee pays tribute to the worth of Kiwanis."

posed to be late in the fall, but one "actor" marched out of the court house wearing a straw hat. Another with a summer hat exchanged his for a felt.

The interior scenes required six large area lights the same as the ones used in the "movie" studios, and several city electricians were on the job manipulating them.

A scene also was made in the morning inside of the residence of Mr. Ball, county agent, and all week the camera-men were busy on "location" on the various farms, and followed out the plot of the story from the scenario that was written.

The picture is being made by the United States Department of agriculture and by Purdue university, and it will be shown throughout the country in an effort to interest farmers on the subject of Ton Litters.

Th picture, when completed will be given the first showing in this county, and it is hoped to have the film here-in time for the annual meeting of the Rush County farm bureau in the early part of November.

Woman Surprises Her Friends

"After a spell of Typhoid Fever 7 years ago I began to suffer from indigestion and gas in my stomach and colic attacks. This gradually became so bad that my doctor advised an operation for gall stones. A friend advised me to try Mayr's Wonderful Remedy which I did with splendid results. My friends were astonished at my rapid improvement. I have no more bloating and can eat anything I wish." It removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract, and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. For sale by druggists everywhere.

T. M. GREEN NOT SO WELL

The condition of T. M. Green, who was operated on Tuesday night for gall stones and an abscess on the gall bladder, was reported today to be worse. He seemed to be gaining until this morning when his condition changed and was regarded as very serious.

SKILL AND BRUTE STRENGTH TO MEET

a position on his back where he would gaze at the night skies and see his ambition going up with the wisps of smoke from a monstrous crowd of spectators.

Jack Dempsey, smaller and less stronger, but greater in experience, speed and technique and a better two-handed hitter was a 3 to 1 favorite in the betting to retain his title as the best fighter in the world to knock out his challenger.

Firpo has attempted to upset all ring tradition by training as no other aspirant for the championship trained and fighting as no other warrior since the days of clubs and stones has fought.

Because skill in his profession and the ability to get most out of human resources counted as an overwhelming handicap against crude strength and antique methods, Dempsey was considered a sure victor by the experts and the chief topic preceding the battle was the controversy over the number of rounds that Firpo would be able to retain a vertical position in front of one of the ring's most effective assaults.

With the exception of a rather unusual weather break, Tex Rickard could not have made plans better to stage what, perhaps is the "second-battle of the century" and the fight in which the kings of the American continents will fight for supremacy.

Gray, low hanging clouds and a chilly breeze that swept over the city made the weather setting far more appropriate for a football game than for an out-door boxing contest and the conditions proved a big break in favor of the champion.

When the weather was so chilly at White Sulphur Springs that he had to work in a swimming suit and a full set of heavy tights, Dempsey complained, but his work under those conditions will fit him far better for the fight than the warm tropical sun of Atlantic City where the big Argentine prepared himself for the biggest battle of his life.

Although there were more than 5,000 assorted seats available this morning at the box office, Tex Rickard predicted that a capacity crowd of 85,000 would be in the park when the principals enter the ring at 9:30 p. m.

Rickard at the last minute, decided to send to main bout in at 9:30 instead of 10 o'clock, but is possible that the usual before-the battle ceremonies will consume so much time that the gong for the first round of the schedule fifteen round contest will not start before 10 o'clock.

Speculators, still in possession of many choice seats, were holding out today for two and three times the face value of their tickets. Wise New Yorkers, however, were waiting until the last minute because of a hunch that some of the "speecs" would have to go below the face value to get rid of their tickets.

The announcement that counterfeit tickets have been placed in circulation has made purchasers more than unusually wary in dealing with the scalpers.

Rickard said this morning that the receipts would be in excess of $1,250,000 and that only the cheaper prices that prevailed and the limited seating capacity of the park would prevent the fight from passing the record established by the Dempsey-Carpentier fight for attendance and receipts.

Despite overwhelming opinion that Dempsey will win easily there is some good judgment represented in a few supporters of the South American who believe that he has a good chance to win the title.

Regardless of his crude methods and his lack of experience, Firpo has more of a chance to beat Dempsey than Carpentier or Gibbons because he is bigger and stronger than the champion and he can hit a terrific blow with his right hand.

On form, Dempsey should win in a few rounds if he could still hit as hard as he hit Jess Willard at Toledo. But he can't.

The champion should win in seven or eight rounds but Firpo has a chance to win and if he should take the title from Dempsey it will be a shock only to those who have been misguided into the way of thinking that there is only one way to do a thing and that is the way in which it has always been done before.

Dempsey and Firpo were in seclusion this morning in New York. The champion was in his suite at the Belmont hotel and Firpo was barricaded in his uptown apartment. They will make their first public appearance of the day when they visit the office of the boxing commission to step on the scales.

Weighing in is only a formality as neither one has to make weight and the disparity in poundage is not being considered a vital factor by those who have money to bet either way on the fight.

Listed among the box-headers for the fight are all the usual celebrities from the theatrical, professional, political and social ranks that always assume the role of spectators at sporting events of interest flavor.

The preliminary bouts will start at 8 o'clock and will consist of the following: Al Roberts, New York, vs Mike Burke, New York 6 rounds.

Lew Brown, Australia, vs Dan Bright, England, 6 rounds.

Bartley Madden, New York, vs Leo Gates, New York, 12 rounds.

To entertain the crowd and prevent a jam after the main bout Jack Burke, Pittsburgh, one of Dempsey's sparring partners, and Bill Reed, of Columbus, will box eight rounds after Dempsey and Firpo have done what they are to do.

The order of the preliminaries and the contestants are subject to change but the show will start at 8 o'clock and the main bout will be under way not later than 10 o'clock.

Mrs. A. L. Stewart was elected chairman of the welfare association at the annual meeting, with Miss Elizabeth Flint of this city being chosen as secretary and Mrs. Ed Aiken of Raleigh as treasurer. Every township in the county except one was represented.

The Welfare association is in reality made up of the visiting committee of the board of children's guardians and one representative from each township. The visiting committee is made up of the following: Mrs. Stewart, chairman, Miss Flint, Mrs. Al Williamson, Mrs. Lila Retherford and Mrs. Crosby. Mrs. Retherford is president of the board of children's guardians, which is appointed by the court.

A BENEDICTION:—Unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless.—Jude 24.

A Great Achievement

It is too bad that the late President Harding could not have lived to witness the consummation of his plans regarding our relations with Mexico. For months before his death he had carried on private conversations with President Obregon, which finally led to the sending of a special mission to Mexico City with power to negotiate an agreement between the two countries. Two weeks after Mr. Harding's death those negotiations came to a full accord, and in another two weeks diplomatic relations were resumed.

It must be credited as another accomplishment of the Harding foreign policy the dominating feature of which was world peace. For unnumbered years to come the people of the earth will be enjoying the fruits of the naval limitations treaty, the treaty eliminating troubles in the Pacific, the Central American treaty of arbitration and armaments limitation, the Taena-Arica arbitration agreement, the rearrangement of Cuban internal affairs which averted civil war in the island, and now the peaceful understanding with Mexico—all directly inspired by President Harding.

Fortunately we have in the White House now a man thoroughly in sympathy with what his distinguished predecessor did, and dedicated to the same policies that have raised American prestige to such a high plane since March 4, 1921.

Selection by Americans

The country has never had a secretary of labor who better understood the temper of the people on the immigration question than does Secretary Davis. Fit immigrants or none is his policy. "There should be some immigration of the right kind," says Mr. Davis, "but we, not Europe, will say who shall come, or we will not let any come." Who is there who cannot subscribe to that sentiment? The present quota law is an effective bar, but the immigrants who enter under its provisions should be more carefully selected, and the selecting should be done on the other side of the water. Secretary Davis has spent much of the summer abroad where he has collected a mass of first hand information for presentation to Congress in support of both of those propositions. It is likely that the coming session will see some early legislation on the subject.

Investigation Needed

An item of news from the coal strike region deserves more than passing comment. It is reported that the morning after the strike was called prohibition enforcement agents visited about 1,000 saloons in the strike area, the bar equipment was removed, and the proprietors were ordered to discontinue the sale of liquor. What were those agents doing before the strike? Apparently they had such intimate knowledge of the location and character of those saloons that they could be called upon at a moment's notice and ordered to shut up shop. Why has it not been done before? Here is opportunity for somebody to investigate what appears to have been gross collusion between prohibition agents and the liquor interests.

FIFTEEN YEARS

From The Daily Republican
Tuesday, Sept. 15, 1908

At a meeting of the high school football players held Monday afternoon, John Moffett was elected captain for the season. A meeting was held about two weeks ago at which Gus Williams was elected, but the meeting was not official. Moffett is an experienced player and should make a good leader for the eleven. The first practice was held yesterday afternoon, about twenty men reported for practice.

Mr. and Mrs. George Guffin delightfully celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage at their beautiful country home south of this city Monday.

The grand jury is the busy little body. Besides having to bring indictments against three or four on a charge of burglary, a continued investigation of the recent white capping, one or two shooting scrapes and other violations. Judge Will M. Sparks gave them a talk straight out from the shoulder in his instructions Monday, openly and fearlessly charging that saloons in West Second street were violating the law and asking that they make a thorough investigation of the matter.

Roy Harrold and Walter Newhouse are now at work making up the final list of members in the First Voters' Watson club. Several of the lists from the townships have not been sent in yet, and all persons having these lists are urged to return them at once to either one of these two men or to County Chairman Frazee.

Elmer Hufford, an enterprising farmer, living south of this city, had a narrow escape with his life last week, when a well which he was digging caved in. He escaped with slight injuries. The well proved a gusher.

Mrs. Jesse Poe and daughter Miss Louise, and Mrs. Sallie Monjar and daughter Miss Helen have returned from Indianapolis where they attended a house party given by Mr. and Mrs. Bert Talbott.

Miss Marguerite Neutzenheler and Miss Florence Frazee will go to Bloomington Thursday. Miss Frazee will visit friends for two weeks, and Miss Neutzenheler will enter Indiana University.

Miss Hazel Lytle returned to school at St. Mary's of the Woods Thursday.

At the regular meeting of the Tri Kappa sorority, held last night at the home of Miss Aileen Wilson, the engagement of Miss Nelle Kennedy to Harry McMillin was announced, the wedding to take place, October 28. The announcement was made in a unique way. A letter from a member, Mrs. B. O. Simpson, was read at the meeting and the announcement was made in it.

Miss Beulah Meredith is suffering from an attack of appendicitis. This is the second attack she has had.

Walter English has resigned his position at the Spradling bakery and has re-entered school.

The Monday Circle held their first meeting of the year Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ora Wilson in North Main street.

MAY ABOLISH STATE SENATE

Nebraska Voters to Decide About One-House Legislature

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 14—Nebraska voters will have an opportunity at the next general election to abolish the next senate.

The proposition will be placed before the people through the initiative method in the form of an amendment to the constitution. The one-house legislature under the new plan would be limited to one hundred members. Former State Senator Otto Mutz of Lincoln has the amendment drafted and petitions are already in circulation among the voters of the state. A minimum of 40,757 signatures will be required to get the proposal on the ballot.

Nebraska will be the first state to operate with one legislative body if the proposition succeeds.

Physical Health means Beauty!

HEALTH and beauty go hand in hand. Where the system is run down—the face drawn and haggard—the body limp and lifeless—beauty is missing. Looks of pity supplant those that might have been gazes of admiration.

Restore your health and beauty will take care of herself. S. S. S.—the rich blood builder—rekindles the spark of health and lights the blaze of beauty by building red blood cells. The nerve power of your system finds life in these very blood cells. Build more red blood cells and your nerve power will increase. S. S. S. builds them. Rich blood will tingle through your system. That lost charm will return. Your entire system will be repaired. You will be ready to cope with the impurities and blemishes that handicap beauty.

As physical health means beauty so, too, does S. S. S. mean beauty. For S. S. S. means systems that are free from impurities—pimples, blackheads, acne, boils, eczema, rheumatism. S. S. S. and good health go hand in hand.

THE CHALLENGER

can sportsman after some North Americans present had proclaimed aloud that Firpo's countrymen were giving him a lot of verbal support but they would not bet on him without big odds.
The one thousand pesos note was whacked on the table in front of the Americans to be covered at even money and the bet was made.

The Score Board

Babe Ruth hit his 36th homer and helped the Yanks beat the White Sox 9 to 5.
Dazzy Vance won his sixteenth game when he beat the Pirates 7 to 4 in the first game but the Robins dropped the second 6 to 3.
Harper tied the score in the ninth with a home run and drove in the run in the 10th that gave the Reds a 5 to 3 victory over the Cubs.
Miller's single in the eleventh inning gave the Athletics a 3 to 2 victory over the Browns.
Walter Johnson outpointed Sylvester Johnson and the Senators beat the Tigers 7 to 4.
Uhl's wildness enabled the Red Sox to cop from the Indians 9 to 8.

NEW SALEM IS COMING AGAIN

Third Game Of Series Will Be Played In Rushville Sunday

Rushville and New Salem baseball teams will cross bats again here Sunday afternoon, and if the two teams play up to their usual form, it should be another heated contest.

In two former games Rushville has blanketed New Salem, and each time it was by low scores, and in two games that were said to be the best ones played on the local diamonds this year. The teams will line-up the same, Sunday as in the previous games, with Yazel and Byrne forming the battery for Rushville and Croddy and Ricketts for New Salem. The game will be called promptly at 2:30 o'clock.

Wills to Fight Dempsey or Firpo

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)
New York, Sept. 14—No bier bouquets need be prepared for the battler who ends on his back when Jack Dempsey and Luis Firpo meet tonight at the Polo Grounds.

They are both primarily business men and their future trade will not be spoiled by a top on the chin.
Dempsey, as an ex-champion, can fight oftener in a year and make more money than he did as the champion. He would be relieved of many of the responsibilities, worries and revenue drains that attend the holding of the title.

Firpo, as the defeated challenger, will be an attractive card as long as he wants to remain in the United States and pursue pugilism as a trade.

Dempsey has said that as soon as he is beaten he is going to retire from the ring, but it is doubtful that he will ever cut himself away from such a profitable business as long as he is able to maintain his position as a good card.

Firpo, a new champion, of course, would have a million dollars or more extended to him for the mere picking. With all his color, his unusual temperament and the romance around his career, he perhaps would make the title worth even more than Dempsey got out of it, and Dempsey made modern fighting worth the big money that it is.

Win or lose, Firpo is matched to fight Harry Wills in South America next April. If he loses, however, it is possible that Tex Rickard will not care to promote the match. If he wins, he will fight Wills in the United States—not in South America.

In signing Firpo to a contract to fight Wills, Rickard merely acted upon the foresight that has made him the greatest of all promoters. He was first to see the possibilities in Firpo and he does not want to take any chance on losing him in the future.

Regardless of who wins, Harry Wills will get the next chance at the championship. To get Firpo, all he has to do is to sign a contract with Rickard, and the fight will need nothing but the selection of a place and a date. Perhaps New York would be the scene, as the perplexing color angle would not be so ticklish as it has been in making a match between a colored fighter and a white native of the United States.

bers to know in advance when the $40,000 worth of securities were to be received at the bank. He believes the robbery was planned on the spur of the moment by a couple of men who saw the certificates lying unguarded.

Detectives were working on the theory that the robber and his accomplice had been studying the bank carefully for several days and were all ready to act when the securities came in.

DEMPESEY WILL NOT LAST 4 ROUNDS WITH "MY BOY," SAYS FIRPO'S DAD

Buenos Aires, Sep. 14—After a later in the drug store owned by Mateo Bascialla where the big Argentine aspirant for the world's heavyweight championship worked as a boy. When asked for his opinion, on the outcome of the fight, the old man crossed himself and uplifted his eyes.

"Dempsey will not last four rounds with my boy," he said, and refused to comment further.

Elaborate arrangements have been made in the neighborhood where Firpo used to be "one of the boys" to receive the details of his fight with Dempsey.

The druggist for whom Firpo used to work has installed a radio outfit at his own expense and he has also wagered four thousand pesos savings of years, on his former clerk.

Crowds were blocking the street early this morning and the police officials frankly admitted that they were skeptical of their chances of restraining the celebrators tonight if the wires should bring the message that Firpo had won the world's championship.

Eleventh hour confidence in the ability of the Argentine to gain is so general, especially in the middle classes, that arrangements were completed for an all-night party tonight in which wining, dining, dancing and parading will be the outlet for and enthusiastic demonstration.

Even if Firpo loses, there will be some revelry as it is felt here that Firpo has accomplished so much already that even the participation of a South American in a fight for the world's heavyweight championship is worthy of celebration.

Newspapers were making elaborate arrangements to cover the fight to the smallest details. La Razon, one of the leading South American papers, planned an eight page fight extra.

While Firpo's chances are considered fine to win, there has been very little general betting. One wager of 1,000 pesos was made in a cafe last night by a prominent South American.

Here is a new departure method in the manner of comparing prizefighters. The gentleman in white is none other than Champion Jack Dempsey, against whom is silhouetted the blackened figure of Luis Firpo. These outlines are actual photographs, taken by Bob Dorman, NEA photographer, who made them to scale and enlarged each the same amount.

When making the first picture, which was of Dempsey, Dorman marked the spot on his camera where it had been focused, and then hustled away to Atlantic City, where, setting his camera at the same mark again, he backed away from Firpo until the focus was sharp.

The combined results gave two photos—one of Dempsey and another of Firpo—which had exactly the same perspective and measurement in every detail. These were then cut out, superimposed and painted over, producing the graphic comparative size ups seen above.

Mrs. Albert Capp entertained this afternoon at her home south of the city with a bridge party, honoring her sister, Mrs. George C. Donley, of Pontiac, Mich., who is spending a few days visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Amos, and other relatives and friends.

The Little Flatrock Mission Band will meet Sunday morning at eleven o'clock in the basement of the church. The members are urged to be present and to bring their dues for the first quarter for the mission-ay year. The leader of the program will be Miss Laetta Colestock.

The Ladies Aid Society of the St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church will hold an all day meeting Tuesday, September 18, at the home of Mrs. W. M. Pearce, 1102 North Main street. A pitch-in dinner will be served at one o'clock. Each member is requested to bring a lady of the church who is not a member of the society. The members are also requested to bring their own silverware and dishes. A full attendance of the membership is urged.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Roman announce the marriage of their son Dale to Miss Lorene Reed of Connersville, which was performed at high noon Wednesday, September 12, at the home of the bride. The Rev. Joseph Land, an uncle of the bridegroom, officiated, using the impressive ring ceremony. The bride wore a dress of blue silk crepe and lace. These present besides the immediate family were Miss Velma Roman of Connersville and Mr. and Mrs. John Land of Knightstown.

Following the ceremony a delicious dinner was served the dining table being tastefully arranged with fall roses and a large wedding cake formed the centerpiece. The bridal couple left following the serving of refreshments, for a wedding trip to Greenfield and Indianapolis and will be at home to their friends next week in Connersville.

A most impressive pre-autumn wedding marked by its simplicity and beauty, was solemnized Wednesday evening at 8:15 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Inlow when Charlotte Mae Trees, daughter of Aaron Trees, was united in marriage to Raymond F. Wicker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Wicker of Shelby county. The Rev. Luther Addington of Gwynneville officiated, using the single ring service.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Blanche Wicker sang "O Promise Me" and following the service she sang "A Perfect Day." The bridal couple were attended by Miss Emma Brown, as maid of honor, and Vaughn Hutchens, as best man. The home was most attractively decorated with baskets of cut flowers in various colors, and ferns. Following the wedding service, refreshments of ice cream, in the form of hearts, and white cake were served. The favors were tiny silver bells, tied with pink and white ribbon. The bride and bridegroom will be at home to their friends after October 1, in Arlington.

The following guests attended the wedding, The Rev. and Mrs. Luther Addington and daughter Esther, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Wicker and daughters Bernice, Blanche, Bertha, Beryl and Evelyn, the Misses Blanche Fox, Vida Frow, Emma Brown, Geneva Mathews, Inez Baker, Mima Inlow and Mary Inlow, Mr. and Mrs. George Inlow, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Inlow, Aaron Trees and Vaughn Hutchens.

Secretary Of War Weeks Tells Legion He Will Not Be Allowed To Escape Sentence

CAN NOT BE RETURNED HERE

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 14. —Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, draft dodger, will be compelled to serve his full prison sentence if he returns to America at any time during the remainder of his life, Secretary of War Weeks informed officials at American Legion National headquarters today.

The letter from Secretary Weeks was in answer to a communication from Lemuel Bolles, national adjutant, asking whether there was "any real desire to bring this man back to serve his sentence."

"The right of Germany at the present time to refuse to surrender Bergdoll is undoubted," Secretary Weeks said. "Bergdoll is considered by international law as a political prisoner, and there is no provision for his return."

"Were the United States in a legal position to demand the surrender of Bergdoll, there would be no resistance on the part of the War Department or any other department in demanding his surrender."

"If he ever returns to the United States, he will be required to complete his full sentence."

MANY HAVE ELECTRIC LIGHTS

Percentage of State Exceeds Percentage For United States

Indianapolis, Sept. 14. —Percentage of residents of Indiana living in electrically lighted dwellings exceeds greatly the percentage for the U. S. or the world, figures compiled here show.

About 2,000,000 persons in Hoosierdom or two thirds of the population live in electrically lighted dwellings.

The U. S. stands first in the actual number of persons living in houses equipped with the ubiquitous meter. Abe Lincoln's fireside study light has been discarded for Edison's glowing hairpin by 39,000,000 Americans.

Uncle Sam has a substantial corner on the telephones in the world, the figures indicate, with 14,000,000 of the 22,000,000 existing telephones vibrating to all manner of American patois, from flappers' to farmers' lingo. Less than 6,000,000 diaphragms quiver to the many tongues of Europe.

FARMER'S INCOME SHOW INCREASE

Farm Bureau Federation's Estimate Based On Latest Production Reports And Market Trend

AGRICULTURE STATUS BETER

Corn, Dairy Products And Poultry Will Account For Increase, Despite The Wheat Slump

Chicago, Sept. 14.—The American Farm Bureau Federation, through its department of research, estimated today that despite the wheat slump, the cash income of American farmers from sales of this crop year will be about $200,000,000 greater than last year. The federation's estimate was based on the latest production reports and market trends.

Corn, dairy products and poultry will account for the increase, according to the farm bureau statisticians, whose figures bear out the observation that the status of agriculture is better than last year and considerably better than before the war.

Last year, the farm bureau figures give the farmers' gross sales as totalling $8,479,000,000 and the forecast for this crop year is $8,710,000,000. On the present crop year revenue, the farm bureau's report says:

"After making due allowance for seed and feed requirements and human consumption on the farm, it appears that less wheat will be sold this year than last and that the income will be considerably less, and that more corn and oats will be sold and will bring a greater income."

The report was compiled after much research by the statistical experts of the farm bureau, and presents an interesting array of figures on the farmers' actual cash income. It is quite different from the estimates on income framed periodically by some economists, and by the agricultural department in that the tables seek to show actual cash income from products sold, instead of giving the total of commodities produced.

Where the government's estimates include the value of nearly everything raised on the farm, including food consumed and crops fed to stock the farm bureau's compilations are confined to products actually sold off the farm, where produced, the aim being to ascertain what the farmers as a group actually receive in income from sales.

The tables show the farmers' cash income this year divided as follows: Crops, $4,725,000,000; livestock, $2,225,000,000; animal products, $1,760,000. In other words, the crops will bring $200,000,000 more than last year, livestock will bring $30,000,000 less, and animal products will bring in $60,000,000 more.

Making allowances for some unavoidable duplications, the experts of the farm bureau put down an increase of $200,000,000 in agricultural income as a conservative minimum.

TWO PLEAD GUILTY IN BUENA VISTA RAIDS

Leslie Ross Given One to Five Years in Michigan City For Illegal Possession of Still

CLEM PRUITT GOES TO "FARM"

Brookville, Ind., Sept. 14.—Leslie Ross entered a plea of guilty to the charge of illegal possession of a still in the Franklin circuit court Wednesday and was sentenced by Judge Tague to serve a term of one to five years in the Michigan City prison. He was also fined $100. Clem Pruitt trustee of Posey township, entered a plea of guilty to unlawful manufacture of liquor and was fined $100 and sentenced to serve 60 days at the state penal farm.

The two men were arrested last Friday afternoon by Sheriff Jacob Joliff and members of the Laurel branch of the Horse Thief Protective Association in a raid on land adjoining the Pruitt farm near Buena Vista. The officers confiscated a 100-gallon still, which was in operation at the time of the raid, five gallons of moonshine whiskey and three barrels of mash.

Two charges were filed against each of the men who were found at the still, unlawful possession of a still and unlawful manufacture. The other charges were dismissed when the men pleaded guilty Wednesday.

NEED FEDERAL AID TO CONSTRUCT HIGHWAYS

Necessity of Hard Road Program For Arkansas Causes Special Session of Legislature to be Called

TO PASS HIGHWAY TAX BILL

Little Rock, Ark., Sept. 14.—Arkansas must have Federal aid in the construction of highways.

Necessity of a hard-road program for the State has caused Governor McRae to call a special session of the State Legislature, which will meet here probably Sept. 24 for the purpose of passing a State highway tax bill to raise funds to meet the 1924-25 Federal aid program of about $3,500,000 available for this state.

Federal aid was discontinued last January because the State had no road maintenance fund.

A bill drawn up by a committee of county judges, legislators and a special Governor's highway committee is expected to be the basis of the new law. The bill provides for a pay-as-you-go plan of building roads, without getting the State further in debt through large bond issues.

Slight increases in gasoline and auto taxes and a new tax on lubricating oil are the main changes in the revenue features. All of the money collected, which is expected to reach $4,400,000 during the first year, will be paid into the State Treasury to the credit of the State Highway Department.

The first $1,500,000 annually will be used for the maintenance under the requirements of the Federal roads program, for construction of necessary links in the State trunk system, completion of unfinished work, reorganization and maintenance of the Highway Department. The next $2,500,000 each year will be used for the retirement of the road improvements district bonds, of which about $5,000,000 falls due annually, thus relieving the taxpayers of one-half of their burden. The remainder $300,000 or $400,000, will be used for new construction.

A "well filled basket" is the pass for the community picnic next Thursday at the city park, Sept. 15 to 15:15.

DISCRIMINATION IN RATES

Martinsville Gas And Electric Company Pays A Fine

Martinsville, Ind., Sept. 14.—Pleading guilty to a charge of granting discriminatory rates, attorneys for the Martinsville Gas & Electric Company today paid a fine of $250 and costs.

The indictment against the local utility charged that certain manufacturing and business interests of Martinsville were given more favorable rates than other concerns.

The case against the Martinsville Gas and Electric Company was the first prosecution growing out of the public service commission's statewide probe of utility rates.

Cheap Movies and Trashy Stories Blamed For Boys "Torture" Death

Belmar, N. J., Sept. 14—"Wild West" movies plus lurid detective tales plus juvenile imitateness equals tragedy.

Such a sum brought about the death of two boys here, and the arrest of two others, held for the grand jury. The deaths came by fire while the four youngsters were playing "Indian" after the fashion of the cheaper movies.

Caleb Hubbard, 18, his brother Willie, 16, Hubert Forman, 16, and Charlie Spindler, 11, were the actors in the tragedy. But only Caleb and Hubert are alive to tell the tale. One is in jail in Freehold, the county seat; the other is at home under bail.

Here for the first time, is the story of the tragedy, as they told it, in an exclusive interview with NEA Service:

After an afternoon of swimming and baseball, the boys began skylarking as they turned their steps homeward.

They wanted to have some excitement, but didn't know just what. Suddenly, one of them, who had been feasting up on detective stories, suggested:

"Let's play sleuths."

In a twinkling, Caleb and Hubert took the lead. As detectives, they seized and bound the other two boys with twine. Then they put them in a large packing case found in a hollow in the woods, back of the gas company's plant. This was the jail. But this wasn't exciting enough. A search was made of the pockets of the prisoners. Some matches were found.

"Why not burn the prisoners at the stake, like the Indians did?" was the idea suggested by one of the boys looking at the match. No quicker said, than done.

The two bound boys were stood against a tree in lieu of the traditional stake. A small piece of excelsior was fired.

Ordinarily no harm would have resulted—but the boys had failed to take into account the "oil-soaked grass."

Flames shot high in the air, enveloping the two victims.

Frightened by the cries of the two

burning boys, Caleb and Hubert dashed in to free them. They broke the twine that bound the boys, burning their own hands as they did so. But the damage was done. Willie and Charles died soon after.

A sobered Hubert sits at home with his mother. The smile of youth is missing from his face. He is out on bail awaiting the action of the grand jury.

"We didn't mean to hurt them," he says. "We were just playing like we saw in the movies."

His voice is flat, with a dead undertone of horror. From his face, with its high cheekbones and heavy eyelids, his eyes look out on the world with a sullen look of defiance. He defends his friend Caleb vigorously.

"Caleb is all right. It would have been just the same with any other boys. People don't like Caleb because he's poor."

But Hubert's mother is not as kindly disposed toward Caleb.

"I didn't want Hubert to play with him," she says. "but he would. Now look in what a mess he is."

Who lighted the fatal match is a secret.

With a boy's loyalty, Hubert says "I don't remember."

Caleb, in jail at Freehold, is equally reticent.

He also "doesn't remember."

Caleb is undersized for his age. His pinched face is sallow, with sullen eyes looking forth suspiciously upon a world that has never held much of pleasure for him.

He admits his fondness for lurid detective stories.

Tears came to his eyes when questioned about his dead brother.

"We didn't mean any harm," he cries. "I loved Willie, and wouldn't have had anything happen to him for anything."

"I carried him to the water after we had broken the string that bound him. My hands were all burned." He displayed two hands on which the burns were still visible.

The tears rolled down his cheeks.

But, like Hubert, he refuses to say who lit the fire.

"Trashy literature and cheap movies have once more taken their toll."

complished though unrecognized, violinist and composer. It is through encouragement from April that they achieve success. Edgar has a play accepted while Joe writes the music for it. April lives in the hope that some day someone will give her a chance to sing on the stage.

April's chance comes, for a theatrical manager gives the girl her long-awaited opportunity. Her debut is a great success. Edgar is able to make April's dream ship a reality—and he does. The picture closes with April, Edgar and Joe sailing out of the harbor "in the path of the moon."

Supporting Miss Kennedy are Monte Blue in the leading man's role; Vincent Coleman, as a popular, wealthy manabout town, and Pedro de Cordoba, cast as Joe Renard. Others include Dore Davidson, as the theatrical impresario, Emily Fitzroy, William H. Tooker, Winifred Harris, John W. Jenkins and Charles Kent.

Alert—Fire of unknown origin destroyed a barn at the Pike farm, near here, and caused damage estimated at $5,000.

"Grand To Have Your Health"

says Mrs. Jenny Evans, of Detroit, Mich. Few of us appreciate our health until we lose it. Mrs. Evans worked in a factory, but owing to a weakness, and pains in her back she was forced to give up work. She says: "A friend recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it made me well. It is grand to have your health, to feel well all the time and to go around like other women without that awful torture of female troubles." Women who are suffering from such troubles should remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the tried and true medicine, now recognized everywhere as the standard remedy for female ills.

"Blossom Time" At Murat

"Blossom Time," that notable musical success, direct from its New York success of two years, where it was seen at the Ambassador, Jolson and Century Theatres, comes to the Murat Theatre for a week's engagement, opening Monday night Sept. 17, with a Shrine party, with the prestige of being the biggest financial winner in the annals of light opera productions in this country, and is a work of other distinctions quite as interesting to the theatregoing public. No light opera ever had a lovelier score. Practically all the music was taken from the undying songs and other famous melodies from the larger compositions of that greatest song composer of all times—Franz Schubert.

Moreover, Schubert himself appears as the chief character in the action, which is based on an episode at least partly authentic, taken from a biographical sketch of the great composer shortly after his death, and done into an opera by A. M. Willner and H. Reichert. It is their work which Dorothy Donnelly (our erstwhile popular actress) has elaborated into the work now presented at "Blossom Time." Sigmund Romberg the facile composer of "Maytime" and numerous other light musical works, is the adapter of the Schubert music and other charming numbers composed by H. Berte of Vienna.

The story of the play is set in Old Vienna of 1826, and Schubert is first introduced surrounded by a group of lovable cronies, much after the style of Murger's better-known Bohemians of Paris. Most of his friends have to keep watch over the young genius to see that he has food enough to live upon, for he lives—in this opera—as he died in actual life at the age of thirty-one, in dire poverty.

The identical company and production which has been diverting New York for many months at the Century Theatre, will be brought here intact by the Messrs. Schubert. Shiest among these singing-players are Messrs. Hollis Davenney, Teddy Webb, Elden Baker Otis Sherdan, and James Burroughs; and the Misses Gertrude Lang, Halina Bruzovna, Marion Abel, Amy Lester, Dorothy Seegar, Julia Hurley and Marion Barton. The production, very beautiful as to scenery, etc., was staged by J. C. Huffman, under the personal direction of Mr. J. J. Schubert.

Wm Russell At Mystic

Situations of the romantic power found in "Alias The Night Wind," William Russell's latest William Fox vehicle, are not to be found outside of the early Elizabethan classics. This production will be seen today only at the Mystic theatre to be a modern Arabian Nights story laid in a great American Metropolis.

Bing Howard, the hero is a stalwart young stock and bond broker who becomes involved in scandal following the theft of $100,000 in bonds. As a result of the calumnious evidence "framed" on him by an unscrupulous detective, he is forced to flee.

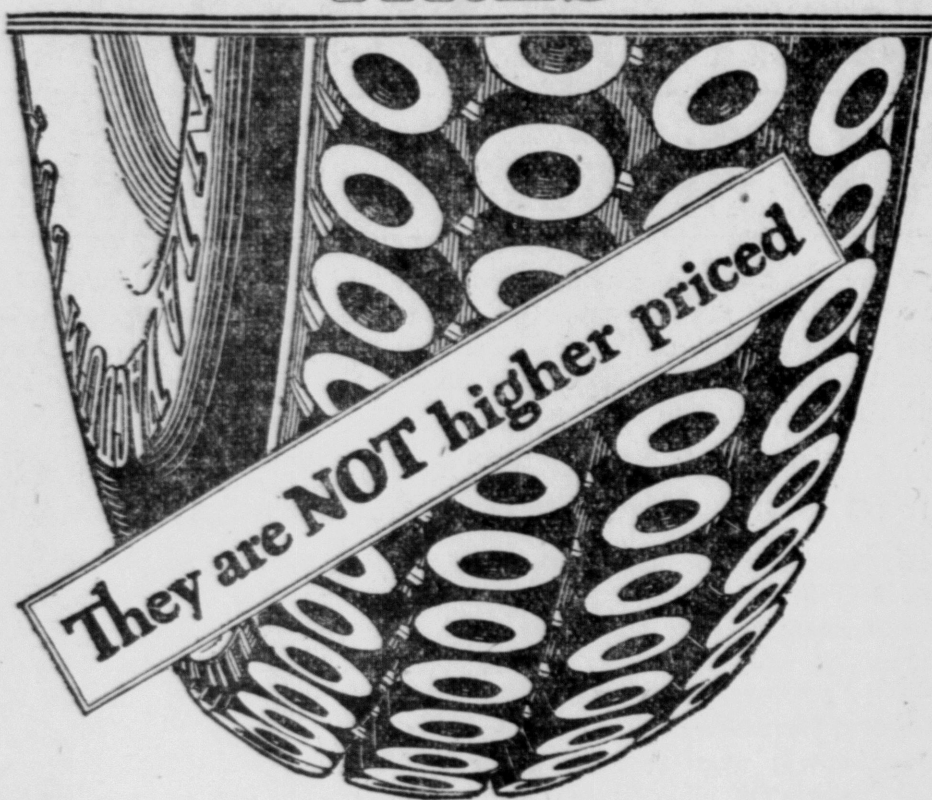

Shadowed and hounded, his life as uncertain as tomorrow's sun and his days as harassed as the police could make them, he suddenly meets the girl. Fleeing from the police one night he boards a taxi which he believes is vacant. To his astonishment he finds it occupied by a pretty girl who politely permits him to alight far from his pursuers. The next time he meets her, to his surprise he finds that she is a detective, therefore, to one in his position, an enemy. The story is brought to a dramatic climax with love winning the honors.

Madge Kennedy at Princess

Proving itself a decidedly novel and interesting production, "The Purple Highway," a Paramount picture presenting Madge Kennedy in the featured role, will be seen today and Saturday at the Princess. Its reception was most cordial.

Miss Kennedy plays the role of April Blair, a slavey in the Home for Failures. Among the inmates of this institution are Edgar Craig and Joe Renard, the former a failure at playwriting while the latter is an ac-

Bank Robbers In Greenville, O., Jail May Be Men Who Killed Franklin County Official

NONE OF THEM WILL TALK

One Of Yeggmen Unable To Explain Wound In Hip, Which Might Have Resulted From Gun Fight

Brookville, Ind., Sept. 14.—Sheriff William VanCamp of Franklin county, who met his death about a month ago when he attempted the arrest of two suspects in a woods near here, may be identified as members of the Greenville and Hollansburg, Ohio, bank robbers now incarcerated in the Greenville city and county jails, it was believed here Thursday.

Police of Dayton, Ohio, Greenville and local authorities were co-operating Thursday with the identification of the slayers as their purpose. When last seen it is said that the two men who shot the Franklin county sheriff were headed toward Hamilton, Ohio. It was later thought that the men may have gone to Dayton.

Investigation relative to the connecting of the Ohio bank robbers with the slaying near here was started Thursday after an examination of Eugene "Red" Webb, of Springfield, one of the alleged yeggs who is being held in the Greenville jail, revealed a bullet wound in his hip.

Two theories are advanced to account for the presence of the wound one that Webb was shot by the Franklin county sheriff while resisting arrest, and the other that the wound was inflicted by Fern Fowle, of Greenville, who shot at the Greenville bank robbers while the latter were making their escape through a cornfield after having been pursued by a car load of Greenville officials.

Attempts of authorities to get an explanation from Webb have been fruitless. Hours of grilling fail to cause the alleged bandit or his associates to make statements.

The bullet wound found on Webb's hip had been plugged with cotton, and was said to have been treated some days ago by a Springfield physician.

Open Season For Wild Ducks, Geese, Brant And Other Migratory Game, Will be on Sept. 16

OTHER DATES ARE GIVEN

Conservation Department Gives Lists of Various Seasons to Aid Hunters on the Law

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 14.—The open season for hunting wild ducks, geese, brant and other migratory game birds opens on September 16, according to the regulation of the United States Department of Agriculture, which has charge of enforcement of the provisions under the treaty with Great Britain.

Due, however, to the 16th falling on Sunday, the season will not open in this state until Monday, Sept. 17, says George N. Mannfeld, chief of the fish and game division of the state conservation department, because Sunday hunting in Indiana is prohibited by state laws.

A digest of the migratory bird treaty, Mr. Mannfeld points out, shows that hunting in either country is restricted to three and one-half months, and to certain birds no hunting except in especially named localities, from March 10 to September 1. This prevents, he says, shooting in the spring when birds are migrating northward. The shooting seasons are arranged for after September 1, and start in Canada and northern and central states which include Indiana, on or after September 1, lasting for three and a half months from the opening date.

Indiana game laws make it an offense to hunt any kind of game except rabbits and waterfowl, (ducks, brant and geese) after December 2, which accounts for an earlier closing date on some migratory game birds given in the table of open and closed seasons and bag limits per day as follows:

Ducks (except wood duck) Sept. 16 to Dec. 31—both dates included; bag limit, 15.

Geese and brant, September 16 to December 31; limit 8.
Woodcock, October 1 to November 30; limit, 6.

Black-bellied plover, September 16 to December 30; limit 15.

Golden plover, September 16 to December 20; limit, 15.

Yellow legs, September 16 to December 20, limit 15.

Wilson snipe, September 16 to December 30; limit, 25.

Coot, September 16 to December 20, limit, 25.

Gallinule, September 16 to December 20; limit 25.

Rail, September 1 to November 30, limit 25.

Sora rail, September 1 to November 30; limit 25.

Open season for squirrel shooting in Indiana is from August 1 to December 1; rabbits from April 1 to January 10.

BEGINS SERIES OF SERMONS

First Presbyterian Pastor to Preach On Books of Old Testament

The Rev. Gibson Wilson, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, announces a series of sermons on the books of the Old Testament, beginning Sunday night. He will consider one book each night during the series, giving its principle teaching.

"These books have many great lessons for us in our day, and are a part of God's purpose and will toward mankind," the Rev. Mr. Wilson points out. "We may learn from them many things that we need not learn from experience. They are at the very foundation of our religious thinking of today."

The Rev. Mr. Wilson begins his series next Sunday night with the book of Jonah. He promises in connection with it to tell one of the biggest fish stories that was ever told. The book has a great lesson which is generally overlooked by many people. Those interested are asked to begin with the very first of these studies.

Cheap Movies and Trashy Stories Blamed For Boys "Torture" Death

Belmar, N. J., Sept. 14—"Wild West" movies plus lurid detective tales plus juvenile imitateness equals tragedy.

Such a sum brought about the death of two boys here, and the arrest of two others, held for the grand jury. The deaths came by fire while the four youngsters were playing "Indian" after the fashion of the cheaper movies.

Caleb Hubbard, 18, his brother Willie, 16, Hubert Forman, 16, and Charlie Spindler, 11, were the actors in the tragedy. But only Caleb and Hubert are alive to tell the tale. One is in jail in Freehold, the county seat; the other is at home under bail.

Here for the first time, is the story of the tragedy, as they told it, in an exclusive interview with NEA Service:

After an afternoon of swimming and baseball, the boys began skylarking as they turned their steps homeward.

They wanted to have some excitement, but didn't know just what. Suddenly, one of them, who had been feasting up on detective stories, suggested:

"Let's play sleuths."

In a twinkling, Caleb and Hubert took the lead. As detectives, they seized and bound the other two boys with twine. Then they put them in a large packing case found in a hollow in the woods, back of the gas company's plant. This was the jail. But this wasn't exciting enough. A search was made of the pockets of the prisoners. Some matches were found.

"Why not burn the prisoners at the stake, like the Indians did?" was the idea suggested by one of the boys looking at the match. No quicker said, than done.

The two bound boys were stood against a tree in lieu of the traditional stake. A small piece of excelsior was fired.

Ordinarily no harm would have resulted—but the boys had failed to take into account the oil-soaked grass.

Flames shot high in the air, enveloping the two victims.

Frightened by the cries of the two burning boys, Caleb and Hubert dashed in to free them. They broke the twine that bound the boys, burning their own hands as they did so. But the damage was done. Willie and Charles died soon after.

A sobered Hubert sits at home with his mother. The smile of youth is missing from his face. He is out on bail awaiting the action of the grand jury.

"We didn't mean to hurt them," he says. "We were just playing like we saw in the movies."

His voice is flat, with a dead undertone of horror. From his face, with its high cheekbones and heavy eyelids, his eyes look out on the world with a sullen look of defiance. He defends his friend Caleb vigorously.

"Caleb is all right. It would have been just the same with any other boys. People don't like Caleb because he's poor."

But Hubert's mother is not as kindly disposed toward Caleb. "I didn't want Hubert to play with him," she says, "but he would. Now look in what a mess he is."

HUBERT FORMAN AND CALEB HUBBARD. (RIGHT)

Who lighted the fatal match is a secret.

With a boy's loyalty, Hubert says "I don't remember."

Caleb, in jail at Freehold, is equally reticent.

He also "doesn't remember."

Caleb is undersized for his age. His pinched face is sallow, with sullen eyes looking forth suspiciously upon a world that has never held much of pleasure for him.

He admits his fondness for lurid detective stories.

Tears came to his eyes when questioned about his dead brother.

"We didn't mean any harm," he cries. "I loved Willie, and wouldn't have had anything happen to him for anything."

"I carried him to the water after we had broken the string that bound him. My hands were all burned." He displayed two hands on which the burns were still visible.

The tears rolled down his cheeks. "But like Hubert, he refuses to say who lit the fire."

"Trashy literature and cheap movies have once more taken their toll."

Completed, though unrecognized, violinist and composer. It is through encouragement from April that they achieve success. Edgar has a play accepted while Joe writes the music for it. April lives in the hope that some day someone will give her a chance to sing on the stage.

April's chance comes, for a theatrical manager gives the girl her long-awaited opportunity. Her debut is a great success. Edgar is able to make April's dream ship a reality—and he does. The picture closes with April, Edgar and Joe sailing out of the harbor "in the path of the moon."

Supporting Miss Kennedy are Monte Blue in the leading man's role; Vincent Coleman, as a popular, wealthy manabout town, and Pedro de Cordoba, cast as Joe Renard. Others include Dore Davidson, as the theatrical impresario, Emily Fitzroy, William H. Tooker, Winifred Harris, John W. Jenkins and Charles Kent.

Alert—Fire of unknown origin destroyed a barn at the Pike farm, near here, and caused damage estimated at $5,000.

"Grand To Have Your Health"

says Mrs. Jenny Evans, of Detroit, Mich. Few of us appreciate our health until we lose it. Mrs. Evans worked in a factory, but owing to a weakness, and pains in her back she was forced to give up work. She says: "A friend recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it made me well. It is grand to have your health, to feel well all the time and to go around like other women without that awful torture of female troubles." Women who are suffering from such troubles should remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the tried and true medicine, now recognized everywhere as the standard remedy for female ills.

BURLEY TOBACCO MEN TO MEET

There will be a county meeting at the County Agent Ball's office in the court house Saturday evening at 7:30 p. m. to elect delegates to attend the district meeting of the Burley Tobacco association.

Different in what way?
Different in being made from rock, not wood, pulp or paper. It will not warp, shrink or buckle. It is fireproof, strong and rigid. It makes standard, permanent walls and ceilings in new construction and repairs.

SHEET ROCK
[SHEETROCK]
the fighting wallboard

Ask your lumber dealer for it

Let us show you how to make your walls and ceiling fireproof with Sheet-rock. We sell it.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 17, 1923

SALE STARTS AT 12:30 O'CLOCK

12 - Spring Boars - 12

Big, smooth, heavy bodied fellows with a lot of quality; of January and February farrow, therefore they have a lot of size and are ready for service.

43 - Spring Gilts - 43

These gilts were farrowed early and have enough size to produce and raise large litters. They are the deep bodied kind with plenty of quality and type. The above offering has been double treated with Thorntown serum and virus. We are raising 138 spring pigs from 18 litters. Isn't that prolificacy? Will they feed? We raised the first ton litter ever produced in Rush county. Come and see them sale day.

Inspect the offering at any time before the sale. We are always glad to show you.
